MEDICINAL.

WHEN LIFE'S AT STAKE

The most timid man will take any chance of escape. The slender rope dropped down the precipice, the slippery log over the abyss, anything that offers a chance of life, is eagerly snatched at. The end the man seeks is safety. He cares nothing for the means to that end.

There are thousands of men and women whose lives are at stake, who are hindered from accepting the one means of safety by foolish prejudice.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been the means of restoring health to many men and women whose bodies were low, cough, bleeding lungs, emaciation and weakness seemed to warrant the statement of local physicians: "There is no cure possible."

Why should prejudice against a put-up medicine hinder you from trying what has cured thousands of suffering men and women?

"Only for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would be in my grave today," writes Mr. Moore, of the City of New York. "I had asthma so bad I could not sleep at night and was compelled to give up all work. It affected my lungs so that I coughed all the time, both day and night. My friends all thought I had consumption. My wife had taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it had helped her so much she insisted on my trying his Golden Medical Discovery. I had taken four bottles and am now a well man, weighing 150 pounds, thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose.

KING'S TOURS ABANDONED.
King Edward's plans have been upset all around. Within a few days he has given up his projected trip to the Riviera as well as to Ireland, and he cannot go to Cannes until he finds out what the Queen will do. She has said lately that she intends to accompany him to the south of France, and her presence, on which he had not reckoned, would spoil his personal plans as well as deprive his little holiday of its informal character. It is still hoped that the Queen may be induced to go to Copenhagen to attend the family birthday celebrations, so as to permit the King to enjoy himself in his own way. But the Queen has developed a sudden and inexplicable preference for the Riviera.

The King's visit to Ireland was abandoned six weeks ago, when it became certain that a majority of the newly elected Dublin Corporation was pledged to refuse him a civic reception and the general political outlook forbade that public excitement consequent upon numerous political imprisonments might lead to hostile demonstrations.

The Irish members of Parliament, so far as they notice the matter at all, declare that the cancellation was for the best, as the King was saved from humiliation and possible inconvenience in being paraded through a disaffected country under the auspices of a Government hated and despised by the people.

PLEASANT WOMAN INHERITS MILLIONS.—Frau Ehrenberg, wife of a day laborer near Bonn, has inherited $2,000,000. When she was a girl some French prisoners were quartered at her father's home during the French war of 1870. One was a young lieutenant of infantry. She and her elder sister, though very poor, were handsome, and the young Frenchman fell in love with the elder.

When peace was restored the officer left, and the elder girl, unable to endure her lover's absence, followed him to France. Touched by her devotion, he married her in spite of the opposition of his parents. His father cut him off with a franc. His wife died in a few years, and the father, relenting and dying shortly afterward, left his son his enormous fortune.

Recently the officer also died. But he had remembered the sister in Germany, and having been unable to reward his wife and her sister for their devotion to him, he left the sister, now Frau Ehrenberg, his entire fortune of $2,000,000.

AWAIT CHRIST'S SECOND COMING.—In the valley south of Stuttgart known as the Swabian country, owing to the frenzied preaching of the Second Adventists, many farmers and peasants have declared their intention of leaving Württemberg and starting off to await the second coming of Christ. Some have sold their houses, farms, and stock, others have given away all their possessions. The advance guard left Württemberg about ten days ago for the Caucasus, where the second coming is expected. There is a division of opinion among the leaders as to the exact spot where the second advent will take place, but all are united in believing it is somewhere in south Russia, and they want to be on the spot at the time, as they believe the end of the world will follow immediately.

WIDOW CRUISES OUT IN CHURCH.—Mrs. Sarah McCloy, the widow who secured a verdict of $2,500 from Rev. J. M. Thomas, pastor of the South Nineteenth Street Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., several weeks ago, for breach of promise, was fined $8.40 on Saturday. Mrs. McCloy attended a revival meeting at the church of her alleged lover, Friday night, and after prayers she shouted: "Three cheers for Dr. Thomas!" No one joined in. She was at the congregation and was heated up by a policeman who had been stationed in the lobby by Dr. Riggs. Mrs. McCloy tried to tell the magistrate that she had climbed a ladder at the church and saw some unseemly things, but the magistrates shut her up. She remained in the lock-up Friday night, not being able to get bail.

BOAT 2000 YEARS OLD FOUND.—A remarkable discovery has been made in County Mayo, Ireland, where a wooden boat, believed to be nearly 2000 years old, has been dug up by some laborers. The boat is beautifully carved from the trunk of an oak tree. It is 46 feet long and shows absolutely no signs of decay. The wood was so hard that hatchets made scarcely any impression on it.

Practically Starving.
"After using a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure my wife received perfect and permanent relief from a severe and chronic case of stomach trouble," says J. B. Holly, real estate, insurance and loan agent, of Macomb, Ill. "Before using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she could not eat an ordinary meal without intense suffering. She is now entirely cured. Several physicians and many remedies failed to give relief. You don't have to diet. Eat any good food you want, but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will always digest it for you. THERE IS ONE RATIONAL WAY to treat nasal catarrh; the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the best sense of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiences should use Ely's Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 55 Warren Street, New York.
